

Next Gen DevOps: Are You Making the Cut?

Stakeholders Need Confidence to Step Into the Future. Orasi Provides It.

Orasi helps you cut manual intervention out of the pipeline and replace it with DevOps automation, best-in-class tools and proven approaches including continuous integration, testing, deployment and delivery.

- Our consultants help your enterprise re-frame your strategic outlook to get you where you want to go then prove those directions via focused proof-of-concept efforts.
- We provide multiple DevOps implementation approaches, including mentoring/coaching your teams or bringing cross-functional teams together to reduce timelines.
- We offer managed service solutions to maintain DevOps capabilities long-term and with excellence.

DevOps Pipeline

No Matter Where You Are on Your DevOps Journey, Orasi Will Meet You There.

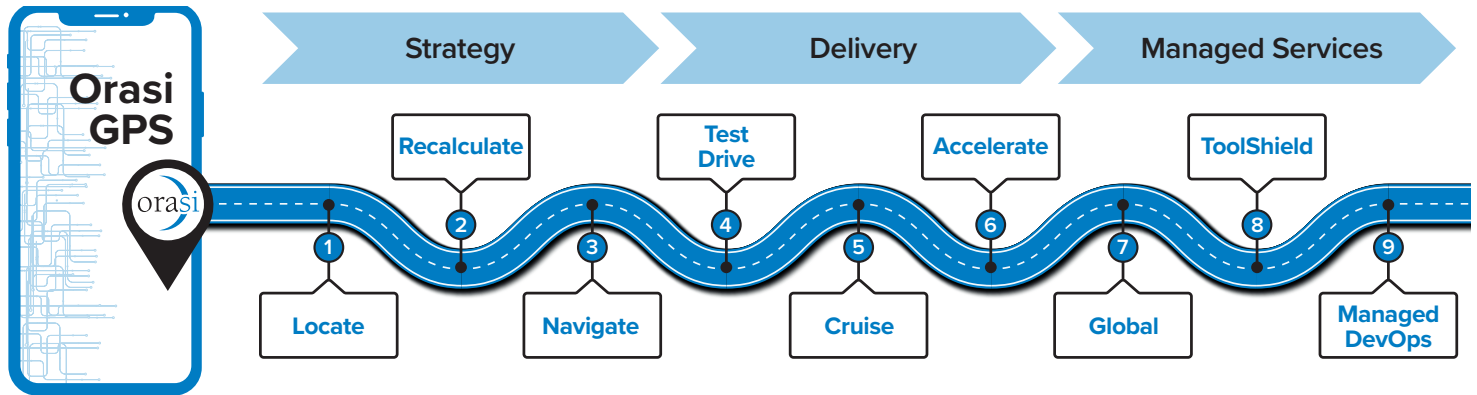

Regardless of your firm's DevOps adoption level, Orasi experts join you along your journey. We help define where you want to go, guide you to achieve a predictable, continuous flow from development to production, accelerate cycle times and bake in quality that blows past every expectation.

Fast, Predictable, Continuous DevOps Delivery with Quality.

If this doesn't describe your DevOps Journey, let Orasi put you on the right path. Orasi's seasoned team of DevOps experts lead organizations and their stakeholders across the entire spectrum of the DevOps pipeline – from creating DevOps strategy to developing complex pipeline solutions to support changing applications, databases, infrastructure, security, monitoring and testing requirements. Orasi offers expert DevOps guidance, services and tools to accelerate delivery of quality, secure applications.

Our Roadmap Leads You to Bold, Confident Delivery.

As with most complex journeys, the transformation to an elite DevOps practice is best achieved with a clear roadmap for success. Orasi leverages its proven approach for delivery strategy, and tailors it for each client engagement.
